ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
VICTORIA, B.C., MARCH 11TH, 1946.

PRESENT:

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "An Act respecting Pound Districts" it is enacted that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by Order in Council made public by notice in The British Columbia Gazette, constitute any part of the Province of British Columbia not within the limits of a municipality into a pound district:

And whereas under the provisions of this Act application has been made by proprietors of land in the vicinity of Cedar, Vancouver Island, to constitute as a pound district all that land comprising the area lying within the following surveyed lands: Section Seventeen (17), Range Four (4), and Fractional Section Seventeen (17), Range Five (5), Cedar District:

And whereas notice of intention to constitute such part of the Province a pound district was given in accordance with the requirements of the Act, and no objection has been made by any proprietor within the proposed pound district:

On the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Agriculture, and under the provisions of the "Pound District Act," His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, has been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the above-described area be constituted a pound district.

G. S. PEARSON,

2024-mh21

Clerk of the Executive Council.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

"CIVIL SERVICE ACT, 1945."

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 8 of the "Civil Service Act, 1945," being chapter 11 of the Statutes of 1945, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following regulations in respect of grievance procedure made by the Civil Service Commission:—

REGULATIONS IN RESPECT OF GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE MADE BY THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 8 OF THE "CIVIL SERVICE ACT, 1945."

Grievance Procedure.

1. The Deputy Minister or other official having jurisdiction over any department or branch of the Civil Service, or over any institution, board, or commission of which the employees are paid by the Province, may designate an official to whom representations respecting a grievance arising out of employment may be made.

2. A member of the Civil Service or a group of members of the Civil Service or an authorized representative of such group or a committee elected as provided for in section 72 of the "Civil Service Act, 1945," may make representations to the appropriate official designated pursuant to Regulation 1 in respect of any grievance arising out of employment.

3. If no official in the department, branch, institution, board, or commission has been designated pursuant to Regulation 1, representations under Regulation 2 may be made to the Deputy Minister or other official having jurisdiction over the department, branch, institution, board, or commission in or under which the complainants are employed.

4. If a settlement is not effected as a result of representations made under Regulation 2 or Regulation 3, the complainants may make representations to the Chief Personnel Office or to his assistant.

5. Failing settlement following upon representations made pursuant to Regulation 4, the complainants may, if the subject of the representations is a matter in which the Civil Service Commission has authority, make application in writing to the Commissioner for a review under section 70 of the "Civil Service Act, 1945."

6. Upon a review pursuant to said section 70, the complainants may present their case in a written statement or by affidavit or orally.

7. Upon any review the Commission shall hold a hearing.

8. Before holding a hearing the Commission shall give notice of the time and place thereof to the complainants and to such other persons as the Commission thinks proper.

9. At a hearing:—

(a.) Every person affected by the matter under review shall be entitled to present evidence:

(b.) Evidence shall be under oath:

(c.) There shall be a right of cross-examination in accordance with the principles observed in a court of law:

(d.) The Commission shall cause the evidence to be recorded in shorthand or in some other manner.

10. The complainants shall be entitled to receive from the Commission on request one copy of the evidence taken at a hearing.

11. A decision made by the Civil Service Commission upon a review shall, subject to the right of appeal conferred by section 71 of the Act, be binding on all parties concerned, but to the extent only to which the matter is one in which the Commission has authority.

12. Where representations have been made pursuant to Regulation 2 or Regulation 3, if the subject of the representations is a matter in which the Civil Service Commission has not authority and if no settlement has been arrived at as a result of the representations, the complainants shall have a right of appeal to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 2009-mh7

March 2nd, 1946.

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 74 of the "Civil Service Act, 1945," being chapter 11 of the Statutes of 1945, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following regulations made by the Civil Service Commission:—

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE PROCEDURE FOR THE RECEIVING AND CONSIDERING OF AN APPEAL UNDER SECTION 71 OF THE "CIVIL SERVICE ACT, 1945," AND OF REPRESENTATIONS MADE UNDER SECTION 72 OF THE "CIVIL SERVICE ACT, 1945."

I. Welfare.

1. A member of the Civil Service or a group of members of the Civil Service or an authorized representative of such group or a committee elected as provided for in section 72 of the "Civil Service Act, 1945," may make representations to the appropriate official under Regulation 2 or to the Deputy Minister under Regulation 3 of the regulations made on the 27th day of February, 1946, by the Civil Service Commission, pursuant to the provisions of the "Civil Service Act, 1945," in respect of any of the following matters:—

(a.) General welfare of employees:

(b.) General conditions of employment:

(c.) Improvement in the standard of service rendered by employees:

(d.) Provision for training of employees:

(e.) Improvement of employer - employee relationship.

2. If satisfaction is not obtained as a result of representations made pursuant to Regulation 1, representations may then be made to the Civil Service Commission.

3. Representations to be made under this part may be submitted to the Civil Service Commission either by:—

(a.) A written submission; or

(b.) A written request for a meeting of the Commission with employees to deal with the matters referred to in the request.

4. The Civil Service Commission shall exercise due diligence to ensure prompt dealing with representations made under this part, and if the representations affect the service as a whole or a substantial part thereof, shall ensure that the opportunity for discussion thereon is offered to the employees affected or to their representatives.

5. The Civil Service Commission may, if it thinks proper, call into consultation any person whether in the employment of the Crown or not, for advice or for the determination of facts or for data relevant to any matter that is the subject of representations.

6. The Civil Service Commission shall report to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council all representations made and shall submit to him a synopsis of all proceedings and discussions.

II. Appeals.

7. For the purpose of appeals to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, pursuant to section 71 of the "Civil Service Act, 1945," the following provisions shall apply:—

(a.) A person desiring to appeal shall give notice in writing of the appeal to the Chairman of the Civil Service Commission:

(b.) The notice shall be filed with the Chairman of the Civil Service Commission within thirty days after the date when the person appealing receives notification of the decision appealed from or within such extension of time as may be granted pursuant to clause (d):

(c.) Forthwith upon receipt of notice of appeal pursuant to clause (a), the Chairman of the Civil Service Commission shall transmit a copy to the Chairman of the Board of Reference:

(d.) An extension of time for appeal may be granted by the Chairman of the Board of Reference, notwithstanding that the period of thirty days has elapsed before the application for extension is made:

(e.) A notice of appeal shall state in detail the grounds upon which the appeal is based:

(f.) Before an appeal is considered by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council it shall be heard by the Board of Reference:

(g.) The Board of Reference shall consist of five members, of whom three shall be permanent members of the Board and two shall be members appointed for the purpose of that reference:

(h.) Of the three permanent members one shall be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, one by the association of employees recognized pursuant to section 72 of the "Civil Service Act, 1945," and the third shall be the Minister of Labour or a person designated by him, and the Minister of Labour or his designate shall be Chairman of the Board:

(i.) Of the two non-permanent members of the Board one shall be nominated by the Deputy Minister or other official under whose jurisdiction the appellant is employed and the other shall be nominated by the appellant:

(j.) If there is more than one appellant and if the appellants are under the jurisdiction of more than one Deputy Minister or official, the Deputy Minister or official by whom the nomination shall be made shall be determined by the Chairman of the Board of Reference:

(k.) No person shall act as a member of the Board of Reference if he has participated or has been involved in a matter that is the subject of the appeal:

(l.) In the event of a permanent member of the Board of Reference being unable to act, a person shall be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to act in his place:

(m.) The Chairman of the Board of Reference within thirty days after receipt of a notice of appeal shall notify the parties to the appeal of the time and place of the hearing of the reference:

(n.) At a hearing of a reference the provisions of Regulations 9 and 10 of the said regulations made by the Civil Service Commission, pursuant to the provisions of the "Civil Service Act, 1945," shall apply mutatis mutandis:

(o.) A Board of Reference within a reasonable time after the hearing of the reference shall, through its Chairman, submit to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council its findings, together with such observations and recommendations as it deems necessary and expedient:

(p.) After submission pursuant to subregulation (o) the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall consider the appeal and dispose thereof.

8. Where an appeal is taken pursuant to Regulation 12 of the said regulations made by the Civil Service Commission, the appellant shall file notice of his appeal with the Chairman of the Civil Service Commission.

9. The Chairman of the Civil Service Commission shall forthwith transmit a notice of appeal filed with him pursuant to Regulation 8 to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

10. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may either refer the subject-matter of an appeal to a Board of Reference or hear and dispose of the appeal without such reference.

11. If the matter is referred to a Board of Reference the provisions of Regulation 7 shall apply mutatis mutandis. 2008-mh7

"CIVIL SERVICE ACT, 1945."

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 60 of the "Civil Service Act, 1945," being chapter 11 of the Statutes of 1945, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following regulation relative to the granting of leave of absence with pay on retirement on superannuation, made by the Civil Service Commission, such regulation to be effective as of and from the 1st day of April, 1945:—

Where an employee is to retire on superannuation, leave of absence shall be granted on the following basis:—

Where the employee has completed at least twenty years' continuous service but less than twenty-five years, one month with pay:

Over twenty-five years' continuous service and under thirty years, two months with pay:

Over thirty years' continuous service, three months with pay.

Provided, however, that where it is found expedient to make a new appointment immediately, rather than await the expiration of the period of leave of absence, the retiring employee may be granted a gratuity in lieu of the leave of absence and the payment of pension would then become effective at the expiration of the period of leave of absence which the employee otherwise would have been allowed.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.

R. S. STUART YATES,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

To carry on the business of carriers by land, river, water, sea, railway, or otherwise, and for the purpose to take on charter or hire any motor-vehicles or conveyances of any description on land, water, or by air, and in particular to own and operate for hire any kind of vehicles used for passengers and freight on land, water and by air, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise an interest in any like business carried on by any person or persons, firm or corporation:

(i.) To undertake, carry on, engage in, and execute all kinds of financial undertakings and operations, and to buy and sell all kinds of negotiable paper, lien notes, sales contracts, and chattel mortgages, and to discount the same, and, subject to the "Insurance Act" of British Columbia, to guarantee the performance of the terms and conditions thereof by the parties thereto, and to carry on the business of brokers, agents, or attorneys for any business, firms, or corporations engaged in any branch of financial, industrial, or commercial business:

(j.) To acquire in any way whatsoever all kinds of real and personal property, whether subject to liabilities or otherwise, and in such case, and in the case of any debt or account owing or payable by the Company to any person, firm, or corporation (including any shareholder or director of the Company), and (or) in the case of any liability, obligation, or contract for or in respect of which the Company is or is about to become liable to pay for, satisfy or discharge the same, either in money or debentures or bonds or shares of the Company, or any combination of the same, said shares to be either partly or fully paid up, such debentures to be secured either by a charge on or a deposit of any kind whatsoever, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or without such charge:

(k.) It is expressly declared that the intention is that the objects set forth in the foregoing paragraphs shall be construed in the most liberal way and shall in nowise be limited or restricted by reference to any other paragraph or by any inference drawn from the terms of any other paragraph.

Registrar of Companies.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 20358.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Murdoch, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 15th day of March, 1946.

The authorized capital of the Company is twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into two thousand five hundred shares of ten dollars each.

The address of its registered office is 712 View Street, Victoria, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To establish and carry on the business of hatter, steam and general laundry, clothier, haberdasher, tailor, and dealers, manufacturers, repairers, blockers, cleaners, wholesalers, retailers, agents, and processors of hats, caps, and all types of headwear, clothing, shoes, and clothing accessories:

(b.) Without in any way restricting the generality of subclause (a) hereof, to manufacture, repair, block, process, remodel, equip, improve, store, warehouse, wash, clean, purify, scour, bleach, wring, dye, iron, colour, disinfect, renovate, prepare for use, buy, sell, rent, exchange, or otherwise deal with or trade in articles of wearing-apparel, household and other linen, and cotton, woollen and silk fabrics of all kinds, hats, caps, turbans, shoes, and all types of clothing, clothing accessories, and headwear, and any other articles or things whatsoever to which the processes, acts, or things hereinbefore mentioned can be done, performed, or applied; and to buy, sell, hire, manufacture, repair, let or hire, alter, improve, treat, and deal in all apparatus, machines, materials, and articles of all kinds which are capable of being used for any such purposes:

(c.) To act as agents, distributors, and (or) representatives for any person, firm, or corporation, manufacturing or otherwise, dealing in or with any of the articles mentioned in subparagraphs (a) and (b) hereof, or having objects or business in whole or in part similar to or connected with the objects of the Company, and to establish depots or agencies in different parts of Canada or elsewhere:

(d.) To carry on the business of manufacturers' agents; real-estate, personal estate, and insurance brokers and agents, and a general agency and general brokerage business in all branches whatsoever thereof:

(e.) Without affecting in any way the generality of the provisions of subclause (d) hereof, to act as agents and brokers for any and all persons, firms, corporations, and estates who or which may now have loaned or invested, or which may at any time hereafter loan or invest, money on or in any and all kinds of securities, and to act as agents or attorneys for any persons, firms, corporations, or estates engaged in any branch of financial, industrial, or commercial business:

(f.) To lend money and negotiate loans; to draw, accept, endorse, discount, buy, sell, and deal in bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, coupons, and all other negotiable instruments whatsoever, and agreements for sale of realty and (or) personalty, conditional sale agreements of personalty of every description whatsoever, and securities of all kinds whatsoever:

(g.) To carry on the business of storage, wharfage, warehousing, and forwarding, and the doing of every act or acts, thing or things incidental or growing out of or connected with said business; the issue of storage and warehouse receipts, negotiable and non-negotiable, covering all kinds of goods, wares, and merchandise; the collection and receipt of storage dues and other compensation:

(h.) To carry on the business of general merchants and dealers in all manufactured goods and materials, provisions, and produce whatsoever:

(i.) To guarantee and become surety for the performance of any contract, obligation, or undertaking made or to be made by any person, firm, or corporation whatsoever, and to secure the performance thereof by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property or assets of the Company, including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever: Provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act":

(j.) To secure the fulfilment of any contracts or engagements entered into by the Company by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property of the Company and its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever:

(k.) To register or licence the Company in any of the Provinces of Canada or elsewhere wheresoever, and to do all necessary things in that behalf:

(l.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects and powers of a separate, distinct, and independent company.
